The Clerk's Entry of Default is properly reflected on the Pacer docket. In response to the Motion for Default Judgment, the Court finds that Erik Loomis and Jane Doe, Real Name Unknown, the Unknown Spouse, if any, of Erik Loomis have been served with a Summons and Complaint but are in default for failure to file an Answer or other responsive pleading. As a result, with respect to such defendants, the Court hereby grants Plaintiff's Motion for Default Judgment and enters judgment in favor of Plaintiff for the relief sought by Plaintiff in its Complaint.

The Court finds that Erik Loomis executed the promissory note referenced in the Complaint (the "Note") and therefore promised, among other things, to make monthly payments on or before the date such payments were due. The Court further finds that Plaintiff is the holder of the Note and that the sums due under the Note were accelerated in accordance with the terms of the Note and Mortgage. The Court further finds that Erik Loomis executed and delivered the mortgage referenced in the Complaint (the "Mortgage"), that Plaintiff is the holder of the Mortgage, and that the Mortgage secures the amounts due under the Note.

The Court finds that the Note and Mortgage are in default because monthly payments have not been made. The Court further finds that the conditions of the Mortgage have been broken, the break is absolute, and Plaintiff is entitled to have the equity of redemption and dower of the current title holders foreclosed.

The Court finds that there is due on the Note principal in the amount of $131,034.30, plus interest at the rate of 9.8% per annum from December 1, 2006. The Court further finds that there is due on the Note all late charges imposed under the Note, all advances made for the payment of real estate taxes and assessments and insurance premiums, Property Preservation, and all costs and expenses incurred for the enforcement of the Note and Mortgage, except to the extent the payment of one or more specific such items is prohibited by Ohio law.

As a result, the Court hereby enters judgment for the amount due on the Note against Erik Loomis.

The Court finds that the Mortgage was recorded with the Cuyahoga County Recorder and is a valid and subsisting first mortgage on the Property.

The Court finds that due to inadvertence and mutual mistake the plaintiff's mortgage does not completely describe the property. The Court further finds that it was the intention of the parties to describe the property as described in Exhibit "C" of the Complaint and that said mortgage be reformed to reflect the intention of the parties.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that unless the sums found to be due to Plaintiff are fully paid within ten (10) days from the date of the entry of this decree, the equity of redemption of the defendant title holders in the property shall be foreclosed and the property shall be sold free of the interests of all parties to this action. In addition, an order of sale shall issue to the Master Commissioner, directing him to appraise, advertise and sell the property according to the law and the orders of this Court and to report his proceedings to this Court.

Notice of the time and place of the sale of the Property shall be given to all persons who have an interest in the property according to the provisions of Section 2329.26 of the Ohio Revised Code.

Upon distribution of the proceeds, pursuant to the Order of Confirmation of Sale and Distribution in accordance with the provisions of Amended General Order 2006-16, a certified copy of the Order shall be issued to the Cuyahoga County Recorder and Clerk of Courts, directing them to enter the same on the margin of the records of the mortgages and liens, releasing the liens adjudicated herein from the premises.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
